Concerning COVID-19 risk coverage

The insurance contracts under the Regulations No. 18 of voluntary accident insurance and illness during a trip abroad Promtransinvest Insurance Inc. cover the costs of emergency medical care and other expenses referred to by the Regulations No. 18 caused by sudden illness that appeared during the stay of the insured client abroad. This refers to a sudden illness of the insured person (including the cases of a disease caused by the COVID-19) with severe clinical symptoms that threaten their life or may lead to a serious impairment of the body functions.

All insurance contracts that fall under the Regulations No. 18 cover the risks of COVID-19 within the insurance amount specified in the insurance contract.
